

CEO Board Report
July 2017

It's been 17 months since I started at G UW. When I walked into 1 Lafayette Court two days before my start date to show my wife my new office, the basement was flooded and pipes were frozen. When I walked into 500 WPA two days after we moved in to show my wife my new office, it was raining in Jeremy's office and the ceiling tiles were collapsed into mush on his desk and computer from a leak in the brand-new HVAC system. Moral of the story: DO NOT BRING YOUR WIFE TO WORK!
