

CEO Board Report
December 2017

Where did the year go? They say: “time flies when you are having fun.” Maybe THAT is the reason the year flew by so fast!

- Grants Committee finalized recommendations for Community Investment grants to agencies.
- Legislative Breakfast held to a full house at Town Hall with positive feedback.
- Reading Champions volunteer recruitment pitched to Retired Men’s Association.
- Camp Guide sales moving along.
- Continued Results Based Analysis project with town non-profits and Dept. of Human Services.
- Reviewed management plan and staffing plan with Executive Committee.
- New hires started 12/18 (Rob Moore, Director Community Impact; Cecile Meunier, Champions Coordinator).
- Readjusted Greenwich Jr. United Way (GJrUW) Program Coordinator’s (PC) hours to original agreement. Subsequently, GJrUW PC resigned and the search began for a new PC.
- Weekly marketing meetings with Sarah Bamford to continue raising awareness of GUW
- Weekly staff meetings held (regular management plan review)
- Priorities continue to be CIP, CPC, DIP fundraising, ECAGS implementation in January. Please see committee reports for more detail.
