and amended on April 26, 2007 and February 16, 2018*

The Greenwich United Way Code of Ethics requires that board members and staff disclose annually the name of organizations on whose boards they serve, all known potential conflicts of interest, and any activity or outside interest that may appear to conflict with the best interest of the Greenwich United Way, including involvement with a current or potential Greenwich United Way vendor, grantee, or competing organization.

In the space below and continuing to the reverse side if necessary, please list the boards upon which you serve; your position, if any, on those boards; and any known potential conflicts of interest. Please return this form to the Greenwich United Way Office, the Chief Executive Officer or the Board Chair.

PLEASE NOTE: If after you have signed and returned this form there is a change in your board memberships or potential conflicts of interest, please provide this additional information.
